

NORTHWESTERN REGION MORRIS COUNTY: A PERFECT DAY ITINERARY

Looking to escape the routine and discover new adventures? The northwestern region of Morris County, New Jersey offers a vibrant mix of outdoor beauty, rich history, and local charm. Nestled within the county are towns like Jefferson, Wharton, and Dover, each carrying its own unique character and experiences. Whether you're an outdoor enthusiast, a history buff, or a foodie, this itinerary will guide you through the perfect day of exploration and enjoyment.

morristourism.org

WELCOME TO MORRIS COUNTY, NJ

MORNING: JEFFERSON

Breakfast at The Jefferson Diner

To kick-start your morning, head to The Jefferson Diner, an iconic spot known for its warm ambiance and hearty meals. Savor a plate of fluffy pancakes, crispy bacon, or a custom-made egg sandwich paired with freshly brewed coffee. The lively energy of this beloved diner sets the tone for an exciting day ahead.

Explore Hopatcong State Park

After fueling up, immerse yourself in nature at Hopatcong State Park, home to the stunning Lake Hopatcong—the largest freshwater lake in New Jersey. Marvel at the breathtaking scenery as the morning sun reflects off the water. Whether you're paddling a canoe, renting a luxury pontoon from Bridge Marina, or just enjoying a quiet moment by the lake, the park is a haven for relaxation and adventure.

AFTERNOON: WHARTON

Lunch at White Owl Tavern

For lunch, make your way to the White Owl Tavern, a Wharton gem that combines neighborhood comfort with creative, flavorful cuisine. From the "field of greens" salads and hearty sandwiches to unique entrées like the "serious business" plates, every dish delights the palate. Make sure to save room for their decadent "browniemisu" dessert—a sweet treat that will keep you energized for the afternoon ahead.

Discover History at Hugh Force Canal Park

After lunch, take a leisurely stroll through Hugh Force Canal Park, a serene escape that blends natural beauty with historical intrigue. Walk along the towpath of the Morris Canal, where you'll find preserved relics from an era when the canal played a crucial role in transportation and trade. The lush greenery and historical features make it a must-visit for anyone seeking both tranquility and a touch of nostalgia.

EVENING: DOVER

Dinner at ONE11 Bar & Kitchen

Wrap up your day with an unforgettable dining experience at ONE11 Bar & Kitchen in Dover. This cozy restaurant offers a unique fusion of Italian, Spanish, and Latin American flavors. From their award-winning dishes to expertly crafted "elevated classics" on the cocktail menu, every moment at ONE11 is an indulgence. Whether you're dining inside their stylish interior or on the charming outdoor patio, this is the perfect way to end your day.

Stay the Night at Homewood Suites

After dinner, retreat to the luxurious comfort of Homewood Suites by Hilton Dover – Rockaway, which combines home-like accommodations with upscale amenities. If you're not ready to call it a night, swing by the Dover Sportsplex for a friendly game of soccer, futsal, or volleyball. Unwind and relive the highlights of the day before settling into a cozy bed for a restful night.